Vice-Chancellor's welcome

Thank you very much for considering studying at the University of Greenwich.

We are a supportive, friendly community of staff and students who are deeply committed to student success, sustainability, and inclusivity.

Our academics are as passionate about teaching as they are about their subjects. We were proud to achieve Gold in the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) 2023, recognising our commitment to providing an outstanding student experience and high-quality teaching.

Our new partnership with the University of Kent strengthens our vision of delivering education without boundaries. As members of the new London and South East University Group* we will have an even stronger foundation to transform lives across the region, while preserving Greenwich's unique identity.

So join us. We will help you achieve your goals and reach your full potential, and we will be with you every step of the way."

Professor Jane Harrington
Vice-Chancellor and CEO,
University of Greenwich

*This proposed name for the university group is currently going through a formal consultation by the Office for Students.

Why study at the University of Greenwich?

You'll join a place where you can belong, learn, be supported and thrive. Whether you come from the other side of the world or from around the corner, you'll soon feel at home within our super-friendly community. And you can count on us to be there for you throughout your time with us and after graduation, helping you to be the very best version of you.

A place to belong

A new kind of course

We're reinventing our degrees, co-creating a new Limitless curriculum framework with our students, graduates and employers to provide you with a new platform for future success.

It's our mission to build this curriculum into all of our undergraduate degrees over the next couple of years, so you can:

- Develop the in-demand skills that employers want
- Gain confidence through placements, internships and live industry projects
- Study in a way that minimises stress and supports your wellbeing
- Tackle real-world challenges as an agent of change
- Make a smooth transition to university – and into a successful career.

This is all part of your degree – no extra modules required.

Here's where you take centre stage. This is learning without limits.

Your student support

Make the most of your time at university, knowing that whatever you may need, we're here for you.

By your side

Need someone to talk to? You can count on our faculty student advisers, mental health and psychological wellbeing coordinators, counsellors and chaplains.

Specialist support

If you have a disability or are neurodivergent, such as being dyslexic or autistic, you can get specialist support from our expert advisers.

Good health

You can join a local practice – we have a list of GP surgeries we work closely with. Let us know if you need help to register.

Extra study skills

You can build on the support from your personal tutor with our skills workshops and drop-in sessions.

Money wise

We can help you manage your money and find part-time work for extra funds.

Safe and sound

Our security teams, resident assistants and the night welfare team are here for you. You can also download SafeZone, a personal safety app to put you in touch with emergency assistance. Should you experience any harassment, our Report + Support portal will take you through your next steps. Learn more about what we're doing to prevent harassment and sexual misconduct.

Greenwich cares

Care leaver Kevin says he had everything he needed before he joined and during his time with us, thanks to our specialist support.

Your wellbeing matters

Meet our dedicated support team and hear about how they help students with the different challenges they face.

Your career

You'll get much more than a degree with us. We'll help you build the workplace skills and experience you need to achieve your career ambitions. You can count on us to be by your side throughout your university journey and beyond.

Here's how.

- 1 Paid work at the university with flexible hours that fit around your studies
- 2 Career support and advice, including one-to-one sessions
- 3 Placement and internship opportunities with a range of employers
- 4 Mentoring from professionals who work in industry
- 5 Career fairs where you can meet employers and find out about job opportunities
- 6 Help for entrepreneurs, including our annual Enterprise Challenge competition.

The confidence I gained during my placement at the university gave me the boost I needed to enter the job market. It helped me secure my graduate role at Barclays. I wouldn't have got to where I am without it."

Ingrid Ionita, Technology Analyst, Barclays, advertising and marketing graduate

We prepare you to be curious and true to yourself, with the confidence to realise your ambitions:

- Be an impactful change-maker
- Be a real-world problem-solver
- Be a highly skilled professional

I chose this university because Greenwich Campus is used a lot as a filming location, and I hoped that I could be part of it. And it turned out I could! Our lecturers told us about opportunities to get involved so I got to work as a runner, shadowing crew members on the Bridgerton film set."

Sanjay Pandey, Senior Digital Content Officer, University of Greenwich, film production graduate

Your student life

Whatever you're into, you'll find lots to keep you entertained outside of your studies and people from all walks of life to connect with. When you join us, you'll automatically become a member of our hugely active Greenwich Students' Union. As well as being your voice on important matters, they run loads of events and socials across all our campuses, so you can do more of what you love.

100+

student societies and sports clubs

My favourite place on Greenwich Campus is Dreadnought. There's always something going on like society events or celebrations. It's great for meeting new people. I loved getting on the catwalk for Global Greenwich fashion show."

Abhiram Satheesh, marketing management graduate

I'm a pretty shy person, so when I meet people, I don't really talk much. But in those first few weeks at uni I went to events and joined societies. It was a great way to meet people as you can bond over something you really enjoy. It's how I met one of my best friends."

Anuhasee Jayawardena, advertising and digital marketing communications student

Greenwich Campus

Enter one of the most unique settings in the UK. This campus sits in the heart of a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is a favourite filming location for blockbuster movies and TV shows. But it's much more than a pretty face.

You'll love chilling with your mates in Dreadnought Building. With a café, basement bar and a huge atrium area, it's the place to be and there's always something going on – Wavey Wednesday is a big hit with our students.

Campus tour with Luna

Take a look around the place with student Luna and get a taste of the Greenwich Campus vibe.

“I loved the idea of studying on a beautiful, historic campus while still being just minutes away from a global business hub.”

Akash Panchal, marketing student

Avery Hill Campus

You'll get the best of both worlds here – a campus university experience where you're surrounded by students and the buzz of central London isn't far. With teaching spaces and accommodation all on-site, it's like being in a student village.

The heart of the village is the Dome. You can grab a bite to eat, play some pool and hang out with friends in the chill-out areas. If you're serious about sport, you'll love our two professional all-weather pitches and five-court sports hall.

Discover Avery Hill

Join us to explore the campus's top-quality educational and sporting facilities, vibrant social spaces, and green setting.

Green living

See the amazing fruit and veg students and staff grow and harvest in our edible garden.

I live in a really busy area and commute to uni, so I like that the campus is quite scenic and surrounded by nature.”

Henna Nazir, midwifery student

Medway Campus

Get ready to fall in love with our redbrick campus in Kent. Lecture theatres, labs and the library are minutes away from student halls. You can literally roll out of bed minutes before your first lecture of the day.

You don't have to venture far when you want to party either. The Hub building is home to the Students' Union and Deep End Bar, which hosts fun events, activities and club nights throughout the year.

Meet our alumni

Our connection with our students doesn't end at graduation. We have over 300,000 alumni across the world who are part of our Greenwich community. As a student, you'll have the opportunity to reach out to alumni for mentoring and advice and to grow your professional networks. Our alumni are here to help and inspire you.

 Greenwich will always hold a special place in my heart, so doing what I can to shine a spotlight on the university or to help its students will always be at the top of my agenda. I want to see the future leaders of tomorrow thrive and prosper. If I can help be a part of that, then that would make me happy.”

Byron Cole, bestselling author, keynote speaker, mentor and trainer, Business Economics BSc Hons, 2008

“The lecturers always had your back and their door was always open. Their support helped me choose the right career path for me. I decided in my second year that I didn’t want to be a solicitor or barrister, and they gave me great advice.”

Lauren Garrett, Project Coordinator, Pinsent Masons, Law LLB Hons, 2018

First-class experience

Samer Abreek shares how his degree helped him secure a job at Siemens as soon as he graduated.

“[Greenwich] students never fail to impress me. They’ve all got the same hard-working go-getter attitude that you just don’t see in a lot of places. I’m really inspired by that.”

Henry Setter, Advice Manager, Imperial College Union, Psychology BSc Hons, 2018

“For me, what makes the University of Greenwich special is that they pick such great people – not just as students but support staff and lecturers. My lecturers and the employability team gave me the confidence to get my sandwich placement at Intel. My time there made me realise that I wanted to work in industry.”

Rachel George, BI Strategy Manager, Lloyds Banking Group, Mathematics BSc Hons, 2016

Your green future

We care deeply about the future of our planet. Our Sustainability Strategic Action Plan, launched in November 2024, sets out how we will deliver sustainability excellence and ensure it sits at the heart of our teaching and community. A growing number of our courses include sustainability content, and we have many activities and projects around the university that you can get involved in. Together we can create a greener, more sustainable world.

5 green tips from Amelia

Even small everyday choices can help tackle climate change. Amelia shares five ways that she's doing her bit for the planet.

Here are some of the ways Greenwich is going greener.

6.7

How to apply

Applying as a home student

- 1 Apply
Visit the UCAS website if you want to study with us full-time. For a part-time course, you apply to us direct via our online application form.
- 2 Tell us about yourself
Get your personal statement ready. The UCAS how-to guide on writing yours will help you get it spot on. For some courses, we may ask you to attend an interview or audition, or to show us your portfolio. See our tips on how to prepare for this.

- 3 Get your offers
If you get an unconditional offer, you can accept your place. If your offer is conditional, you'll need to get specific grades before it becomes unconditional. Once you have your offers, make your firm and insurance choices in your UCAS Hub account.
- 4 Get your results
Got your grades? Brilliant! We'll email you on what to do next. Missed out on the grades you needed? Although this is bound to be disappointing, don't worry. We may still accept you on your course or offer you an alternative degree through Clearing.
- 5 Join us
You'll need to register to join us as a student, and our Welcome Team are here to help you do this quickly and easily.

Get your application underway

Applying as an international student

- 1 Visit our website
A great place to start is the Your country page on our website. Here you'll find the entry requirements for your country and how to contact our local representatives.
- 2 Start your application
The easiest way to apply is through an authorised in-country representative, which you'll find on the relevant Your country page. You can also apply to us through UCAS. Our international team are here to help you and answer any questions you may have about the university or joining us as a student.
- 3 Receive your offer
If you meet the entry requirements, we will offer you a place. You can find general entry requirements on the relevant Your country page and specific ones on the course pages. Please send any documentation we have asked for, such as qualifications.
- 4 Accept and confirm your offer
When you accept your place and pay your pre-registration deposit, you can begin the Confirmation of Acceptance for Study (CAS) process.
- 5 Apply for your student visa
Once you have your CAS from us, you can apply for your student visa. We have put together a handy guide to help you do this. Allow plenty of time for your visa application.
- 6 Get ready to join us
Check you have all the documentation you need to show when you arrive in the UK and start arranging your travel. We can't wait to welcome you!

Our history, your story...

Ready to make history with us? For over 130 years, we have been helping students explore their talents and achieve their personal and academic goals.

1890

Founded as Woolwich Polytechnic

We started with 504 students and the aim of serving the poorest in the local community. We were located close to the Royal Arsenal, munition factories and workshops.

1935

First sandwich courses in the UK with the Ministry of War

1922

Codebreaker Tommy Flowers joins us

The engineering qualification Tommy Flowers gained with us provided the foundation for his success as a World War II codebreaker alongside Alan Turing.

Nobel prize winner Sir Charles Kao (1933–2018) graduates

Known as the 'father of fibre optics', Sir Charles Kao made the internet possible. He studied electrical engineering with us and met his wife while he was here.

1970

Woolwich merges with other institutions to become Thames Polytechnic

1992

Birth of the University of Greenwich

We gained full university status while staying true to our roots by providing career-focused courses aligned to the needs of employers.

1996

Natural Resources Institute (NRI) joins us

NRI's world-leading research and teaching in food, environment, agriculture and sustainable development transforms lives across the globe.

1997

Old Royal Naval College gains UNESCO World Heritage status

2000

Stephen Lawrence Gallery opened

The gallery promotes diversity and was founded after the publication of the Macpherson report into the police handling of the Stephen Lawrence murder investigation.

2008

Malorie Blackman receives OBE

Alumna and author, Malorie Blackman gets an OBE. Children's Laureate from 2013 to 2015, she is an advocate for more diverse literature in schools.

2012

Thor: The Dark World filming location

Filming of the eighth Marvel movie took place at the Old Royal Naval College. Recent productions filmed here include the TV show 'Bridgerton'.

2023

University awarded TEF Gold

TEF Gold, the highest Teaching Excellence Framework rating, recognises outstanding teaching and outcomes for undergraduate students at UK higher-education institutions.

An important note

This prospectus describes the courses and services we intend to offer in 2027/28. It reflects the most accurate and up-to-date information available at the time of publication. Some aspects of programmes – such as module content, credit structure, and methods of teaching and assessment – are currently under review as part of our Curriculum Shape project. Where we reasonably anticipate changes, we will update our website with clear and specific information as soon as it is available. We do not expect to make material changes to our 2027/28 programmes. If we propose to make any change that affects information you relied on when deciding to apply or accept an offer, we will notify you and, where required, consult you in accordance with consumer-protection law. For more information about Curriculum Shape search 'Greenwich' and 'Curriculum Shape'. An additional key update will be published on our website by the end of Clearing 2026 (around October), providing more definitive information for 2027/28. If you have any comments about the prospectus, please contact us on our contact form (UK students) and at international@gre.ac.uk (international/EU students) as appropriate. The University of Greenwich will do all that it reasonably can do to provide educational services as described on its website and in this prospectus. Sometimes, circumstances beyond our control mean that we cannot provide such educational services. This might be because of, for example, industrial action by third parties, the unanticipated departure or absence of key members of university staff, acts of terrorism, the acts of any government or local authority, changes reasonably required by a professional, statutory or regulatory body (PSRB) or accrediting body, epidemic or pandemic of disease, academic changes within subject areas, or where the numbers recruited to a course are so low that it is not possible to deliver an appropriate quality of education for students enrolled on it. In these circumstances, the university will take all reasonable steps to minimise the resultant disruption to those services, for example by making reasonable modifications, but to the full extent that it is possible in law, the university excludes liability for any loss and/or damage suffered by any applicant. The modifications we make may be to: the content and syllabus of courses, including in relation to placements; the timetable, location and number of classes; the content or method of delivery of programmes of study; the examination process; and the timing and method of assessment. Many of the changes that we make are in response to feedback from students and are intended to improve the experience of students and student outcomes. Where circumstances demand an unavoidable change or where it is necessary for the university to discontinue a programme of study, the university will take reasonable steps to minimise both the changes we make to the programme, and the effect for applicants. All significant changes will be notified promptly as set out above. Our Student Protection Plan sets out the steps we will take to protect the quality and continuity of study for students. If you have any particular concerns regarding any proposed changes, you should make the university aware as soon as possible by contacting us via our contact form (UK students) or email address (international students) provided above, to discuss your options, which may include choosing a different course, or cancelling/withdrawing your place with us.

You should also be aware that some of the courses listed in the prospectus may be subject to final approval. In the unlikely event that a course is not approved by its start date, the course will not run and you will not be able to take up your place. Should this happen, you will be informed by the university and assistance will be provided to those who have been offered a place to find a suitable alternative course at the university. If a course is awaiting final approval, this will be indicated clearly in the course listing entry in the prospectus.

The prospectus provides core information on our courses. As a student, you receive further material describing the teaching, examination, assessment and other educational services, and information on the social side of student life at the time that any offer is made to you and subsequently upon enrolment. Your application to the university will be considered in accordance with the university's admissions policy and procedure, which also sets out your right to complain if you are dissatisfied with the handling of your application. Should you go on to enrol as a student of the university, you will be asked to agree to the university's principal conditions of registration and your studies will be undertaken and governed in accordance with the university's student regulations, policies and procedures. Please note that the principal conditions of registration and the student regulations, policies and procedures are updated annually for the start of the academic year. While changes are not usually significant, the current year's versions should be treated as indicative and you should familiarise yourself with the documents applicable to your year of registration when you enrol. A summary of changes to regulations and policies is provided to continuing students at the start of each academic year. If you become a student, this notice shall constitute a term of the contract between you and the University of Greenwich. Any offer of a place is made on the basis that you consent to this notice as part of the contract.

To view the above terms and conditions online, which include links to the current year's admissions policy and procedure, principal conditions of registration and the student regulations, policies and procedures documents, please visit gre.ac.uk/about-us/governance/legal-information/terms-and-conditions.
