

Student Consent Form - Permission to Record Presentations

Student Consent Form: Permission to Record Presentations

Course name:

Course code: Year/term:

Tutor name(s):

Each student will be delivering one or more presentations, either individually or as part of a group. Your tutor wishes to record these presentations for educational purposes.

By signing this form (overleaf), each Student is entering into a separate agreement with the University of Greenwich effective from the date upon which they sign it.

As part of this agreement:

1. You grant the university the right to make audio and/or video recordings of your assessed presentations that form part of this course and to store them.
2. The copyright ownership in the Presentation Works is governed by the university's IP policy as referred to on the university's website¹.
3. You grant the university at its discretion and any party authorised by the university, an irrevocable worldwide, non-exclusive right to use, make copies of, publish or otherwise communicate and distribute the works in the recordings via any medium, including but not limited to the internet for educational purposes. The university will use reasonable efforts to ensure that it restricts access to the recordings to only those people who (i) need to view the recording for educational purposes (ii) have technical responsibility for making the recordings available.
