

A photograph of the dome of St Paul's Cathedral in London, featuring a large clock face and a golden weather vane on top, set against a clear blue sky.

Incoming Study Abroad Orientation Programme

January 2019

University of Greenwich

UNIVERSITY of GREENWICH

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

WEDNESDAY, 9 JANUARY 2019

Registration

Time and venue: 9:00-10:30 | Dreadnought

Who should attend: All students

To complete your student registration, you will need register in-person to get your student ID card. Before attending, please make sure that you complete the pre-registration on your Greenwich Portal account (open from end December 2018).

You will need to ensure you have your passport or ID with you on the day to verify your identity. Please meet outside of the Dreadnought Student Centre at 8:50.

Is this an optional activity?: No, students must attend.

Faculty of Liberal Arts & Sciences Meeting

Time and venue: 10:00-12:00
Queen Anne 010

Who should attend: Erasmus+
(Humanities, Law, and Design)

This is the first official meeting for all Erasmus+ students who will be studying Humanities, Design or Law courses. You will be introduced to your University of Greenwich Faculty Erasmus Coordinator, Simon Dye, and the rest of the services which are available to you from the Faculty.

Is this an optional activity?: No, students must attend.

Lunch

Time and venue: 12:00-13:00
Stephen Lawrence 011

Who should attend: All students

Everyone is welcome to join us for a friendly lunch on campus before the introductory presentations start. All sandwiches and drinks will be provided and this is a great chance to get to know some of the other new Erasmus+ and Study Abroad students.

If you would prefer to spend the lunch break elsewhere then please feel free to. Greenwich Market will be open as well as the cafés in the Dreadnought building.

Is this an optional activity?: Yes

Welcome Presentations

Time and venue: 13:00-14:30 | Stephen Lawrence 010

Who should attend: All students

These presentations will include an introduction to the University, the local area of Greenwich and helpful information about how to settle into your new life in London. You will also hear from a Greenwich Students' Union representative about the many different extra-curricular activities on offer.

Is this an optional activity?: No, all students must attend

THURSDAY 10 JANUARY 2019

Faculty of Business Welcome Meeting and Q&A

Time and venue: 10:00 – 11:00
Stockwell Street 11_2017

Who should attend: Erasmus+ (Business)

This is the first official meeting for all Erasmus+ students who will be studying Business-related courses (these courses are a part of the Faculty of Business). You will be introduced to your University of Greenwich Faculty Erasmus Coordinator and the rest of the services which will be available to you within the Faculty.

Is this an optional activity?: No, students must attend.

Library Tour and Study Skills Session

Time and venue: 11:00 – 12:00
Stockwell Street 10_B006

Who should attend: All students

The skills you need to be successful as a student during your time at Greenwich will be covered, including research methods, referencing texts, delivering presentations and team-working and may be different to the methods used in your home country or university.

This Study Skills session will help you to adapt to these changes.

Is this an optional activity?: No, students must attend.

‘Welcome to Greenwich Discovery Event’ with Active Footprints

Time and venue: 13:30-16:30
King William 016

Who should attend: All students

Embark in a little friendly competition with the rest of the Erasmus+ and Study Abroad students. You will take part in a Treasure Hunt around Greenwich campus where you will work in teams and try to be the first team to find the treasure, whilst getting to know the campus! We will end at the Lower Deck in the Students Union for Pizza and Drinks.

Is this an optional activity?: No, students must attend.

FRIDAY, 11 JANUARY 2019

Greenwich Campus Tour

Time and venue: 11:00-11:45
Queen Mary Building

Who should attend: All who are interested

If you haven't had the chance to tour Greenwich campus, please come along. Not only will you see all that our university has to offer, you will also see the historic sights of this campus, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Students who don't attend the International Welcome Week should come along to the tour.

This site is also popular with Hollywood filmmakers, so, you may see some A-Listers walking around on campus.

Is this an optional activity?: Yes

British Afternoon Tea

Time and venue: 14:00 – 16:00
Stephen Lawrence 011

Who should attend: All students

Everyone is invited to join us for our final event to enjoy an afternoon of British tea and cakes, a popular tradition in the UK!

Greenwich students who studied abroad (some at your home universities!) will be invited and will be a good chance to make new friends and have some fun before starting your studies on Monday.

Is this an optional activity?: Yes

Contact:

University of Greenwich
Old Royal Naval College
Park Row
London SE10 9LS

Telephone: 020 8331 9444

greenwich.ac.uk

Documents contained in this folder may be available in other formats upon request

University of Greenwich, a charity and company limited by guarantee, registered in England (reg. no. 986729).
Registered office: Old Royal Naval College, Park Row, Greenwich, London SE10 9LS