Student Registration Period

The dates presented here are the standard term dates for the University of Greenwich. The University permits programmes to start and registrations to be completed outside of these dates. Students studying outside the standard term dates should seek guidance from their programme leader or appropriate Faculty/departamental office.

Students on Taught Master programmes are expected to study throughout a twelve-month academic year, to prepare for their final assessment.

Postgraduate Research Students are required to be in constant engagement with their programme, apart from periods of leave agreed with their supervisor(s).
